Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Mandler teaches a system and corresponding method for risk-based purchasing of goods. The clearinghouse determines a risk-based discount fee as a function of the buyer's risk classification. If the transaction is authorized by the financial clearinghouse, the financial clearinghouse transmits the payment amount to the seller and transmits an invoice to the buyer for the purchase price of the transaction.

Walker teaches a method for the transfer of funds and credit lines where the transferor makes a transfer to the transferee by debiting the credit card of the transferor and crediting the credit card of the transferee. Any amount of the value up to the full credit line of the transferor can be transferred to the transferee.

Neither Mandler nor Walker teach storing a trade credit value for a first user that is divisible, continuously available, transferable, discountable, and credit enhanced to investment grade status promissory obligation and allowing the transferred amount of the trade credit value to be used by the second user in any of settlement of another transaction for the second user, discounting for cash before a pre-defined maturity of the trade credit value, and holding through to the pre-defined maturity of the trade credit value.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
